

"To improve our community in both the present and the future"

MATTHEW P. VILLEMURE MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

Congratulations on your upcoming graduation from high school. Please remember to complete the grant application as legibly and thoroughly as possible. This scholarship is for One Year, $500.00 and will be awarded upon proof of acceptance and a copy of your class schedule from the college of your choice. Best of Luck in this and all of your future endeavors. Schoolcraft County Community Foundation Board of Directors.

Matthew Paul Villemure (June 15, 1977 - September 8, 2005), attended Manistique Area Schools, was a graduate of Engadine High School in 1996 and continued his education at Grand Valley State University. Matt enjoyed hunting, 4-wheeling, building computers, working on his jeep and keeping up on current events and politics. Matthew lost his life in a dune buggy accident in September, 2005, after which his mother started this scholarship fund in his memory.

Grant Guidelines:

1. Must be a registered full time student
2. Must have attended Manistique High School all four years
3. Must be enrolled in a College approved Trades Program
