FROM PASTOR CATIE

“So let us not grow weary in doing what is right, for we will reap at harvest time, if we do not give up.” – Galatians 6:9, NRSV

A few years ago, a dear friend of mine gave me a devotional as a gift. I have found the devotional, “52 Devotions for Dog Moms” to always have a simple message that comes at the right time. I don’t pick this devotional up every day because of its small size, but when I feel the Spirit pulling me, I open it up and see what the words have to offer me in that time in my life.

I recently felt called to open this devotional and found these words from Galatians. The devotional continued by describing how our dogs wait patiently for us. This was an image I could see clearly as I read. Dillon and I’s dog, Abu, waits for us to come home from work. If one of us is home with him he will lay on the couch with us or follow us around the house waiting for the missing person to come home.

The author continued by describing how us humans don’t always wait so patiently. We pray for things and expect them to happen quickly. We want things to happen on our timeline. I think I can safely speak for many when I say we are not so patiently waiting for the end of Covid-19.

As we approach the three-year mark of quarantine, wearing masks, social distancing, and being surrounded by the unknown I find comfort in these words from Galatians. May we not grow weary in protecting ourselves, our loved ones, and our neighbors. May we find the patience to wait for God to reveal God’s plan instead of working off our own timelines.

When God’s timeline for Covid-19 is completed, we will reach the harvest time and we will see the benefits of our waiting and perseverance. We don’t know how much longer

Covid-19 will be a part of our narrative but take heart. God was with Noah on the ark for 150 days and promised to never flood the lands again. God was with the Israelites for 40 years in the wilderness and brought them to the promised land. God is with us in Covid-19 and the harvest is coming.

Peace,
Pastor Catie

From the President...

We had a wonderful installation of Pastor Catie that was well attended - thank you to those of you that came. We welcome her with open arms! The spaghetti dinner at Pine Aisle was also successful! Thank you to all that helped and/or attended.

I am sure that it is the frigid weather that is keeping many of you from venturing out on Sunday mornings. Last Sunday we had 9 in attendance! Hopefully we will greet many more of you in the coming weeks! Stay warm and keep praying!

- State legislatures as they gather to make important decisions.
- Congregations preparing for their annual meetings.
- For the end of the pandemic.
- For refugees throughout the world.

*Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for,
the conviction of things not seen.*

~Hebrews 11:1

Dear Northern Great Lakes Synod,

As this Year of Hope 2021 comes to a close, we shift our focus to Faith for the year 2022. Faith is, of course, connected to Hope as our Faith in the Spirit of the Living Christ is the source of our faith and our hope.

While each generation has been marked by its own challenges, it's hard not to feel like our time in history is somehow exceptional, perhaps because we are the ones who are living it. The past couple of years have certainly been distinctive. We are living in a time of contrasts and simultaneous opposites:

- Weariness and opportunity
- Grief and creativity
- Loss of traditions and forging something new
- Polarization and common mission
- Apart but together

Living in the tension of opposing forces is exhausting. And yet, it is only in that in-between space that we are able to move forward, like walking a ridge line, carefully balancing between two valleys that drop steeply to either side. Every step must be calculated and considered to avoid careening down a slippery slope.

I do believe we entered this pandemic thinking that somehow it would end and we would all go back to the way things were. Now, I am thinking that it is not about looking for an end but shifting into a new way of being.

Included in the charges given to a pastor at an ordination is this exhortation:

“So discipline yourselves in life and teaching that you preserve the truth, giving no occasion for false security or illusory hope.”

I do not wish to give illusory hope, encouraging you to hold on for some near or distant day when the pandemic will be over and things will get back to “normal.” The shifting and adapting we are doing now may well be permanent and not just a temporary adjustment for extraordinary circumstances.

As we travel the ridgeline of 2022, I encourage you to join me and the whole synod in a focus on Faith. The whole point of being church, the whole reason God created the church in the first place, was to share the good news of Jesus. When so much of the future remains uncertain, we have this core mission to guide our steps.

For 2022, I believe we will find blessing as we dig into what we believe, why we believe it, and what difference that belief makes to who we are as people trying to follow Jesus, and what it means for how we live in the world. Whether you join a Synod-wide Lifelong Faith Formation class or participate in a small group Bible Study in your congregation or with a group of friends, I ask you engage in a new effort, a new discipline, to deepen your faith, and I promise to do the same. Together, we will walk this narrow path through the tension that 2022 brings and find our way into becoming the future church that God is bringing into being.

Yours in Christ,

Bishop Katherine Imega

Dear Northern Great Lakes Synod,

I had the honor of installing Pastor Catherine Ford at Faith Lutheran in Three Lakes, WI on Sunday, January 9. Not only was this a long-awaited event for Faith because they had been without a pastor for more than two years, but the event needed to be rescheduled because of weather.

So it was with great joy that the congregation gathered, both online and a few in person, masked and spread out in the pews, to celebrate this new partnership of pastor and congregation.

In the Northern Great Lakes Synod, we schedule our installations of new pastors in the afternoon so that neighboring clergy can also attend, offering their support and a visible reminder that the church is more than one congregation, so that as a whole synod we rejoice together. The color of the day is always red in acknowledgement of the work of the Spirit that forged the new partnership and brought us all to this moment of celebration.

And just after the Installation Rite is completed, I present the new pastor to the congregation. When the applause has faded, I invite the pastoral leaders who are present to introduce themselves and offer a word of greeting.

At the installation of Pastor Ford, her mentor, Pastor Kari Vadis, was the first to speak. And into this moment still glowing warmly with good wishes and fresh from enthusiastic applause, Pastor Vadis recounts what was said at her installation. To the newly installed Pastor Ford, she says, "Here is your congregation." And as everyone smiles, she adds, "They will disappoint you. They will let you down."

I confess this is not what I was expecting. I wondered where she was going with this. It was like a bucket of cold water being dumped on the good feels and warm happiness of the moment. But then, she went on. "Yes, they will disappoint you. But love them anyway. Forgive them, anyway." And then she added as she addressed the congregation, "Here is your pastor. She will let you down. She will disappoint you. Love her anyway. Forgive her anyway."

I do not know who said this to Pastor Kari at her installation, but these wise words continue to resonate.

The relationship of pastoral leader to congregation, and congregation to pastoral leader, indeed any relationship that we are in, cannot move forward without forgiveness and love. And in our current times, this has never been more true than now.

We have all suffered disappointments. Between adaptations and adjustments, pandemic protocols and sickness, loss of traditions and loss of loved ones, we are weary. And the reality is, we are not done with this yet.

I believe congregations are well practiced now at making decisions together. You know your context, your vaccination rate, and the rate of compliance when it comes to wearing a mask. If I can provide any more clarity to what you already know, I offer this:

- Continue, if possible, with an online worship option.
- Stay home if you feel sick, even if you only have a cold.
- Get vaccinated, if possible. While it will not prevent a person from getting COVID- 19, it will diminish the possibility of hospitalization and death.
- Decide together if in-person worship is advisable, given vaccination rates in the congregation and the burden on the local healthcare system.
- Continue to love and forgive each other, even as we are weary and disappointed.

As the year of our Lord 2022 continues, we find our strength from the presence of Christ in each other. God gives us what we need for the challenges we face now, and the challenges ahead. And together we move forward, one step at a time.

Yours in Christ,

Bishop Katherine Finegan

God also remembers those whom he loves. Through baptism, God has claimed us! Through the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, God backs up his claim with actions! The objects of God’s love got more than cards or flowers...they have received new life!

But God’s love is not limited to one day of the year, for God’s love is never ending. For God, every day is “Valentine’s Day”!

Please remember our sister in your prayers.
