Our Mission Statement ...

First Lutheran Church is God's people inviting, involving equipping and empowering to serve, that all may know Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior.

Goodbye, Doughnuts, and Hallmark

Dear FLC Family,

This month we say goodbye to our intern, Vicar Melissa Salminen. It has been a lovely 13-month journey, but we were just a stop along the way. We will let her go with love. We will wish her well with joy and maybe some tears. We will pray that God continues to use her for good in our world and our synod.

Then we turn to our path and the other ministries God has in store for us. In hosting Melissa here with us we helped the greater church. After February 28, we will be done. First will not be a part of her ministry anymore. In fact, for a year we are to intentionally separate from her so she can move forward in her calling. We can still pray for Melissa, but she will need to learn to fully embrace her future community and its culture.

She doesn't need us anymore. So... doughnuts. They are great. Most humans like to celebrate(commiserate?) with food. Doughnuts are the Michigan way, thanks to our Polish brothers and sisters. We are coming upon Paczki Season! Fat Tuesday is on the 21st. It is the day before Ash Wednesday where our foreheads are marked with the ashy cross of repentance and mortality. (Our Service is at 7:00 pm on the 22nd). Fat Tuesday is the day before we fast. Traditionally, the indulgence happened because lauders were being cleaned out before the great Lenten Fast, people partied a la Mardi Gras.

During Lent we enter into the discipline of self-examination and repentance, prayer and fasting, sacrificial giving and works of love—strengthened by the gifts of word and sacrament. Whether you give something up, take something on, or simply focus on your relationship with Christ, have a doughnut first. Rituals, even silly ones, matter. They taxi our spiritual mindsets to the next seasonal stop.

Finally, Hallmark. Hallmark Holidays aren't a huge part of church life, but it is never the wrong time to express love. February, culturally, is all hearts and chocolates. Romantic love, neighbor love, doughnut love, they are all lovably unique. Agape love though, is the love God has for us. It is charitable and deeper than anything the Hallmark Channel could show. So, skip the cheap chocolates and look to find ways to love in the world the way God loves us. God's love is profound and ours no matter how big or small can be too.

God's peace, Pastor Elisabeth

Ubiquitous Unknowns

Greetings Siblings in Christ

Our journey together on the path of learning from each other draws to a close this month. First Lutheran is a busy, active place filled with God's love for one another and the world. You embraced Caroline, Luke, and me as part of the family here from the beginning and we are truly grateful for this experience.

Together we created a place to honor and remind us of all those we are in communion with around the world through our flag wall. We hosted an amazing week of Day Camp with Fortune Lake for the young ones and the young at heart at the picnic. We worshipped in the sanctuary and at the park. We shared many meals and coffee hours together. We studied God's Word and the Lutheran Church. We shared many stories about life today and in distant memory. Thank you all for opening your hearts to us on this journey.

Now it is time for a new journey to start. We will say goodbye to one another over the next few weeks. I am sure I will shed more than a few tears along the way. Happy tears because of the amazing people who have touched my life and helped me to form my pastoral identity through our interactions. It will also be a time of celebration as we have all completed the internship journey of learning and formation together. There is joy in witnessing the Holy Spirit move among everyone at First Lutheran.

After goodbye, First will move on with its daily routine and life of ministry as it will also shift and adjust with those who cross the threshold each week. My family and I will adjust to a different schedule as well as we await First Call after graduation. First Lutheran will hold a special place in our hearts as internship congregations do for pastors during their seminary journey. Rev. Kolstad's memory of internship is so vivid he used an example from that time in his message at Pr. Hider's ordination in January.

Thank you for your welcome, support, prayers, and love during our time at First Lutheran. This is an amazing place with wonderful, faith-filled people.

Thank you and Blessings to each of you,

Vicar Melissa, Luke, and Caroline Salminen.

Stewardship

AWESOME STEWARDSHIP

When Pastor Elisabeth passed out stars with a different word on each recently as part of a worship service, my star had the word “AWE” on it.

I’m taking that as a sign that I should be in awe with all the wondrous things God does for us. God IS awesome. Most awesome of all is the undeserved grace with which we are blessed and the gifts of time, talent and treasure God LENDS to us to “do stewardship” every day.

Perhaps most acts of stewardship don’t rise to the level we would consider as “awesome”, but that’s hard to judge. The ripple effect of a seemingly small, insignificant act may, over time, turn out to be powerful and impressive.

2022 turned out to be a banner year for stewardship centered on Vicar Melissa’s internship time with us. One could even call it awesome. The exchange of the gifts between our community of faith and Vicar over most of last year was very meaningful and a blessing that will “keep on giving”.

When Vicar Melissa leaves us in at the end of this month, we will be better because of her stewardship and she will be because of ours. We will use the gifts she shared with us in our future ministries and, we pray, she will use gifts shared with her as she is called to ordained ministry.

Thanks to all who call First Lutheran home for committing the resources necessary to make this awesome stewardship happen. Thanks for walking with her on this leg of her journey. Thank you, God. You are an awesome God!!

Thankful and in awe,
Dirk Manson, Stewardship Chair

Amazon Smile Update

Dear charitable organization,

In 2013, we launched AmazonSmile to make it easier for customers to support their favorite charities. We were excited about the potential for the program and the impact it could have for many charitable organizations. We want to thank you for your partnership during all these years.

After almost a decade of running AmazonSmile, we learned that with so many eligible organizations—more than 1 million globally—our ability to have an impact was often spread too thin.

Over the past few years, we've seen that Amazon can have a more significant and lasting impact if we invest in specific areas and focus our philanthropic efforts in the communities where our employees live and work. We've started to see the benefits of a more focused approach with our investments in programs like Amazon Future Engineer and our \$2 billion investment in building affordable housing in our hometown communities through the Amazon Housing Equity Fund—and we will continue to pursue and invest in other areas where we've seen we can make meaningful change...

...We will keep supporting thousands of charities across the U.S. in many ways, and focus on the areas we believe can help create an even greater impact. Our long-term commitment to our communities remains the same: We are determined to help create a better world for our customers, our employees, and the communities we serve across the country.

Thank you,
AmazonSmile Team

Hope at the Inn

Amanda and I hosted HATI at our church with a lot of training and support from Rhonda and Pat. The week went very well, we had 5 guests on some nights. It was a pleasure getting to know them and it was very humbling to see the efforts each guest persists through each day. One guest traveled by bus at 2 am for a 2nd job interview in Marinette. We keep him in prayers for an opportunity to open up for him.

Many hands make light work, we had several church members and community members that dedicated their time for shifts, provided monetary donations for food or provided a meal to volunteers and guests. We would like to personally thank the following people for their time and talent. Please consider volunteering in the future!

*"You do well
if you really fulfill the royal law according to the scripture,
'You shall love your neighbor
as yourself.'"*

~James 2:8

Dear Northern Great Lakes Synod,

Have you heard the phrase, “Birds of a feather flock together?” This little saying acknowledges what we all know; we gravitate towards the familiar and the comfortable. We like to be with people who think like us, behave like us, believe the same things as us, maybe even look like us. It's natural. I suppose some anthropologist could give a long treatise on herd mentality or the role such affinity plays in survival.

Other observers of societal norms would offer that social media has intensified this phenomenon. Online algorithms supply us with posts that affirm our foregone conclusions. Worse, there are more than a few memes out there that characterize anyone with an opposing view as being fair game for mockery or dismissed as unworthy. Beware of viewpoints being portrayed in the extreme, with no room for nuance or grey area.

It is becoming more and more rare that people gather with birds of another feather, where their world view or assumptions or convictions are challenged. People talk about echo chambers, where we proclaim what we believe to be true only to hear it echo back to us as proof.

The thing is, if we only surround ourselves with people who agree with us, if we never encounter a contrary opinion and explore it for its valid points, if we avoid conversations that invite deeper thinking, broader understanding, or a push back against what we consciously or unconsciously believe to be true then we have stopped learning and our lack of engagement contributes to the polarization of our society and the underlying anger that results from feeling misunderstood.

A remedy for this is intentional engagement and deep listening, not to argue a point or change someone's mind, but to understand the reasons that support another perspective. To that end, our Synod will be offering a Lenten Kaleidoscope Challenge. Our NGLS Kaleidoscope in Christ task force seeks to provide more opportunities for our synod to see others through the eyes of Jesus so that we can better, as James and elsewhere in scripture urges, “love your neighbor as yourself.”

Because it is more than a little difficult to love what we do not understand or stay present with topics or people that make us uncomfortable.

So during Lent, you are invited to engage the resources on our website under The Kaleidoscope Challenge. Short videos, articles, movies, and books are linked there for you to watch, read, and study. I encourage you to consciously lower your defenses, raise your awareness, and learn something new about racial equity, our indigenous neighbors, and the LGBTQIA+ community. And you are invited to join a small group of people every week via zoom to process and discuss the resources for that week. What do you have questions about? What surprised you? What challenged you? What pricked your compassion? Your curiosity? Your emotions?

On our synod website, www.nglsynod.org, you can register for the cohort of your choosing. A variety of leaders, dates, and times are available.

At a time when people are quick to anger and disagree, I hope that our Church and your church can lead the way toward mutual respect and understanding. As Martin Luther once said, “God doesn’t need your good works, but your neighbor does.” For the sake of community, for the sake of the command of Jesus to love, for the sake of our neighbor, let us do the homework that will lead to authentic witness and put the love we have for Jesus into action.
