I John 2:1

We have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the Righteous.

Even in heaven, Christ remains our next door Savior....The King of the universe commands comets with a human tongue and directs celestial traffic with a human hand. Still human. Still divine. Living forever through his two natures...

The hands that blessed the bread of the boy now bless the prayers of the million...You know what this means? The greatest force in the cosmos understands and intercedes for you.
